ACHIEVING QUALITY EDUCATION TOGETHER

Hawkley Hall High School

We are an 11-16 mixed comprehensive of around 1000 students and 120 staff situated to the west of Wigan.

We are a community of students, staff, parents and governors with a common goal. We strive for the highest standards in everything we do.

We are proud of our positive, caring ethos based on a set of expectations we call 'The Hawkley Way' which has a fundamental principle at its heart; the principle of mutual respect. The students themselves coined the phrase in our code of conduct, 'Treat other people with respect to be respected in turn'. We believe this principle is essential for our happy and successful school community.

As a parent myself, I know how important a decision the choice of school is for your child. Children only get one chance at this stage of their education and you need to be confident your child is provided with the best chance possible.

We believe that we provide an excellent quality of education and care for our students, respecting them and getting to know them all as individuals. Inside and outside of the classroom we provide a wealth of opportunities to nurture the academic and personal growth of our students helping them to prepare for adult life and their place in the wider community whilst continuing to strive for excellence.

My goal is for Hawkley Hall to be the best school it can be and for our students to be the best they can be - in the classroom and beyond. I want our school to be the natural first choice for every family living in and around our local community because they know it's the right choice for their child.

Whatever your reason for looking at this prospectus, I hope you find it informative but please do not hesitate to contact school should you require further details or wish to arrange a visit to see us in action and meet our students. After all, they are our greatest ambassadors!

Hearing our students' voice

As a true community we believe it is very important that we consult and involve our students in decisions which affect them in school.

We do this in a number of ways:

- Questionnaires students are surveyed at different times during their school careers for their opinions on a wide range of school matters including behaviour in class, effectiveness of antibullying procedures and quality of teaching. Their responses help to inform school self-review and improvement.
- School Parliament a boy and girl from each form group meet regularly to represent the views of their form and year group in discussions about school matters.
- » Headteacher's forum two students from each form meet with the headteacher for them to put forward ideas for improvement as well as ask questions about the running of the school. This forum is also used to test out potential developments.
- » Assisting with the appointment of staff. A number of our young people are trained to interview applicants and provide feedback to the appointment panel to help inform the decision making process.

"They (students) are keen to take on responsibility and make an excellent contribution to the running of the school." (Ofsted)

The Rowan Learning Trust

The Rowan Learning Trust was established in May 2012 with the aim of maximising the potential of all children, students and adults that the Trust works with.

The Trust was established by the Governing Body and Leadership Team of Hawkley Hall High School following successful school to school support over a number of years and across a large number of schools in the North West. That school to school support was based on the belief that teachers should help each other to develop professionally so that the life chances of the children and students in their care could also improve.

The school to school support brought tangible benefits to all involved. The establishment of the Trust was therefore the next step in the evolution of our ongoing professional development as it will allow other schools from a variety of stages to join our community and allow us to develop together for the greater benefit of all of our children, students and adults.

Underlining the Trust's commitment to maximising potential for all are these simple but powerful values:

- 1. Caring about, and for, children, young people and adults
- 2. Providing safe and nurturing settings
- 3. Creating opportunities for continual growth and development
- 4. Developing exceptional professionals
- 5. Delivering a culture of mutual respect
- 6. Fostering a learning community

"The trust gives good support to the school. It has provided additional capacity to improve standards and increase the progress of all groups of students." Ofsted Kirkby High School 2015
